ARTICLE VI.
DEDICATION

A. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to purposes meeting the requirements for exemption provided by Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any of its directors, trustees, officers, members or any private individuals, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to reimburse reasonable expenses incurred on its behalf, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purposes clause hereof.

B. Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, corporation or similar entity which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Any such remaining assets shall be disposed of by decree of the Superior Court of the county in which this corporation has its principal office, on petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation, in a proceeding to which the Attorney General is a party, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Superior Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. Such decree of the Superior Court may be waived if the Attorney General makes a written waiver of objections to the disposition.

ARTICLE VII.
DEFINED TERMS

As used in these articles of incorporation, the terms “Internal Revenue Code” and “Code” mean the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and a reference to a provision of that Code shall be deemed to indicate the corresponding provision of any further United States Internal Revenue law.
